

Aztec Tents

A tradition of fine craftsmanship, innovative design and superior service

An innovative leader within the international tenting marketplace, Aztec Tents excels in providing superior quality products throughout the special events industry. Since 1966, Aztec Tents has produced award-winning tents and structures for event rental companies, hotels, country clubs, caterers, award shows, governments and other custom, off-site event locations.

Aztec is one of the most recognized tent manufacturers in North America for its diversity of product and strong collection of tent professionals, with exclusive representatives throughout the U.S., Europe and Australia. The company's extensive service team includes sales, production, engineering and manufacturing personnel to support each product.

Vice President of Aztec Tents, Alex Kouzmanoff, says, "Aztec Tents looks forward to continuing its dedication to innovation and excellence, which has served our clients well for many decades."

Aztec Tents has been honored with several IFAI International Achievement Awards for its outstanding specialty fabrics projects, including the Outstanding Achievement Award in the tent manufacturing category. Aztec's outstanding customer service has been noted in leading industry publications.
