

Aggreko Event Services

Trusted event provider of power, cooling and heating

For more than three decades, Aggreko Events Services (AES) has been setting the stage for the world's most visible events. Our services include: lighting Olympic venues since 1988, powering Super Bowl halftime shows, going on location for movie productions, and electrifying elections at presidential debates and inaugurations since 1992.

Our rental services include:

- Custom-built equipment, including silent generators for events where noise must be minimized.
- Heating and cooling for tents, movie sets, stadiums, arenas and other areas that require regulated temperatures.
- Power assessment and distribution systems including: preparation, testing, mobilization and transportation; installation and commissioning; operation and maintenance; and decommissioning and demobilization.
- With Aggreko Remote Monitoring (ARM) units on all our equipment, teams at our Remote Operations Center monitor equipment performance 24/7, to keep your event problem-free.

Anchor Industries Inc.

How it's made matters

The details show in everything we do, every day, for more than 130 years. We measure our success by what matters to you: easy to install tent designs that reduce your labor costs; durable, quality construction that maximizes your return on investment; an in-house engineering team; and access to support services that help you generate referrals from happy clients.

Aesthetics and quality have made Anchor tents the standard. Anchor brands such as Century®, Aurora® and Navi-Trac® are known as top-of-the-line, easy choices for event planners.

Quality and durability are the result of rugged engineering, expert craftsmanship and more than a century of experience. This combination allows Anchor to produce the longest lasting tents in the industry that continue to deliver revenue long after they have paid for themselves.

Support and service from the largest, most experienced team in the industry consistently delivers "above and beyond," allowing you to take on a wider range of events, while providing peace of mind.

Recent recognition: 2019 InTents Reader's Choice Awards Winner: Best Tent Manufacturer, Best Custom Graphic Supplier, Best Customer Service.
